A comprehensive English-language guide to tax and law in Austria

Forget reading lengthy and dry legal or tax parlance in a textbook in order to feel in charge of bureaucracy. This book will help to make important choices such as purchasing a house or managing inheritance like an expert. It gives you background on the continental law system, the banking landscape in Austria and all you will need to know to make tough choices about how to register a company, tax liabilities and family law such as divorce, status of children and succession law.

Treat this as your user's manual for family and succession law, setting up a company, wealth management, immigration law, buying and renting a home and personal banking in Austria.

The editors

MMag. Dr. Niklas Schmidt is a partner at WOLF THEISS and heads the firm-wide tax team there. He is admitted both as a lawyer and as a tax adviser. Furthermore, Niklas is a member of the International Fiscal Association (IFA), the International Bar Association (IBA) and the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP). Niklas is also the immediate past chair of the IBA's Private Client Tax Committee. He has top rankings in several international legal directories.

Stefan Pacher is an associate at WOLF THEISS with a strong focus on tax and private clients. Before joining the firm, he worked in the tax law department at the University of Economics and Business in Vienna and at a „Big Four“ accounting firm.
